Ok, now for customs

For each athlete, if they do not already have a CCID – a client ID for the Integrated Cargo System, a completed B319 is required - <http://www.border.gov.au/Forms/Documents/b319.pdf>

The completion of a B319 requires a 100 point Evidence of Identity Check – made up from a primary document commonly a Passport and a Drivers' Licence.

The Export Application B957 <http://www.border.gov.au/Forms/Documents/B957.pdf> and Supplementary page – B957a (if required)

If you are submitting the export documentation on behalf of each individual then we require a copy of your Evidence of Identity as well.

The following link takes you to a fact sheet on communicating with Customs http://www.border.gov.au/Exportinggoods/Documents/fs_communicationwithcustoms.pdf

The following documents are also required to be submitted for each individual.

- A completed RGP - Restricted Goods export Permit – available for the Department of Defence website <http://www.defence.gov.au/DECO/Master/docs/DEC07-Restricted-Goods-Permit-Application-R-08-01.pdf> further info at <http://www.defence.gov.au/deco/firearmspermit.asp>
- A copy of the Firearms Licence
- A copy of your Firearms Registry Certificate
- Import Approval from the Police in the State in which they will be in with the firearms.
- 100 points ID – passport photo page and drivers licence. (yes again)
- A Department of Defence permit if the goods are over the quantities/type for an RGP

Please also be advised that an RGP once processed is only valid for 28 days therefore it will not be processed until closer to the time.

I am informed this may be emailed to mandexnsw@border.gov.au
